5ab. Congress is considering legislation to address several needs facing the country. It would lower the cost of prescriptions and make health insurance more affordable. It would increase access to affordable home care services for the elderly, as well as increasing access to affordable child care and paid medical leave.

This legislation would take action on climate change by expanding the use of clean energy like wind and solar power and increasing energy efficiency. It will also expand Medicare to cover dental, hearing, and vision care for seniors.

This legislation, called the Build Back Better Act, would cost three-point-five trillion dollars spread out over ten years and would mostly be paid for by raising taxes on corporations and the wealthy. It would not raise taxes on anyone earning less than four hundred thousand dollars a year, and many families would have their taxes cut.
